Password Hash Synchronization

Password Hash Synchronization is used to Sync password from on-premises to Azure AD.

Password from on-prem Active Directory is synced to Azure Active Directory every two minutes.

Active Directory store password in the form of Hash Value these password are encrypted using MD4 Algorithm→16 bytes message digest Algorithm to encrypt password.